The Court made the following:

J U D G M E N T: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice B.Sudershan Reddy)

This Writ Appeal is absolutely frivolous in its nature. The learned Judge disposed of the Writ Petition directing the licensing authority to consider the objections of the first respondent-landlord, made in the representation dated 20th September, 2004, before granting renewal of the licence in favour of the appellants. Such insignificant and inconsequential orders are not interfered with by this Court. The order passed by the learned Single Judge did not result in any injustice to any of the parties. The appellants are indulging in speculative litigation. The Writ Appeal fails and accordingly shall stand dismissed.

It shall always be open to the appellants to avail such remedies as may be available to them in law in case they are aggrieved by the orders passed or to be passed by the licensing authority.
